

REPSOL YPF

Repsol YPF, one of the largest integrated Oil and Gas Multinationals, is searching for the following Positions for its Libya Business Unit:

HR ANALYST (Ref: HRA)

This position is responsible for: *) Personnel policies & Administration. *) Relations with Production Division. *) Local Payroll. *) Relationship with contractors. *) Manpower reports. *) Medical insurance issues. *) Internal Communication

We are looking for a proactive, results and service oriented person, who is use to work as part of a team and has the ability of managing changes and working in multicultural environments.

Candidates must have a B.Sc. Degree in Business Administration, Human Resources or equivalent and 3 to 5 years of experience in HR duties. Knowledge of SAP program is a plus.

TAX ANALYST (Ref: TA)

This position is responsible for: *) advising on compliance of tax returns obligations *) supporting development and implementation of new projects *) solve tax queries. *) prepare technical reports related to tax matters.

We are looking for an enterprising, proactive and results oriented person, who is used to work as a part of a team and has the ability to work in multicultural environments. Candidates must have a B.Sc. Degree in Law, Economics or equivalent, with especial emphasis in tax regulations and basic knowledge in economic and finance matters (accounting, corporate finance, etc.). It is important to accredit 3 to 5 years' experience in Tax matters in the Oil and Gas sector in the Country. Knowledge of the regulatory frame for Oil operations in Libya is a plus.

For all of the positions, all candidates must be Libyan nationals, must be fluent in English Language, must have excellent PC skills and must have the availability to travel abroad. Spanish Language and international experience will be considered as a plus.

Applicants must submit their CV's to the following address, indicating the reference and the desired compensation.
multisolutionslibya@gmail.com

Your energy moves us.